Can I Upgrade My Stateroom After Booking?

Yes, you can upgrade your stateroom after booking through the Upgrade Advantage program.

Norwegian Cruise Line allows guests to place bids on better staterooms after they've made a reservation. If you receive an email invitation, you can submit an offer for a higher category. This upgrade in Norwegian Cruise Line is a bidding system where you name your price, and NCL may accept it based on availability . Your offer is per person for the entire cruise and covers the first and second guests only . If your bid is accepted, your card is charged immediately, and the upgrade amount is non-refundable . You can modify or cancel your bid up to 5 hours before departure if it hasn't been accepted yet . To discuss your current upgrade options, call +1 833 624-{0944} and let the team guide you through the process.

How Do I Upgrade My Stateroom with the Upgrade Advantage Program?

To upgrade using Upgrade Advantage, you must receive an email invitation and submit a bid online.

The process begins when NCL sends you an invitation between booking and departure. You then use the link in the email to place your bid. You'll see a suggested bid range and can choose your offer amount. If your bid is accepted, you're charged the additional amount, and your room is upgraded. This upgrade in Norwegian Cruise Line does not add any extra promotions to your booking; you keep the ones you already have . If your bid is not accepted, you stay in your original room and are not charged . Keep in mind that if you have multiple cabins, each must bid separately . For help navigating the bidding portal, call +1 833 624-{0944} and get expert advice.

Does NCL Allow Free Stateroom Upgrades?

NCL does offer free upgrades, primarily through WorldPoints rewards or promotional offers.

If you have a WorldPoints Mastercard, you can redeem points for a stateroom upgrade in Norwegian Cruise Line. For example, 30,000 points can get you an upgrade from Oceanview to Balcony, while 60,000 points moves you from Inside to Balcony . These upgrades are subject to availability and exclude The Haven, Suites, and Mini-Suites . Additionally, Norwegian occasionally runs promotions where you can upgrade for free or at a reduced cost. For example, the Free at Sea program often includes perks like beverage packages and specialty dining, which can feel like an upgrade to your onboard experience . To check if you are eligible for a free upgrade in Norwegian Cruise Line, call +1 833 624-{0944}.

What Is the Free at Sea Plus Upgrade?
